CALPRO began three facilitated online courses for the Summer that will conclude in August: Motivation and Persistence for Adult Learners, Understanding the Adult Learner, and Effective Teaching for Adult Educators. In September, CALPRO will begin its Fall courses. The first will be Integrated Education and Training, running from September 26 to October 23, 2022. This course guides agency teams in creating an action plan for putting into place the necessary foundations for implementing an integrated education and training (IET) model that align with agency's IET vision. Agencies must apply as a team consisting of an administrator and a team of two instructors representing two roles: 1) a basic skills (i.e., ABE, ESL) instructor and 2) a technical skills instructor (i.e., CTE).
