CALPRO Communities of Practice are beginning this month! Supporting Immigrant Integration through Civics Education (Milpitas Adult Education and Online) will help educators support immigrants through civics education as understood within the lens of the California Immigrant Integration Initiative and aligned to approved EL Civics metrics. Participants will learn about the Immigrant Integration Framework, explore the resources from the Teaching Skills That Matter in Adult Education (TSTM) project, and gain skills to better support their immigrant students in their classrooms and programs. This training will take place October 10, 2022—November 18, 2022. Register at <https://bit.ly/3Q5ygXL> by October 5, 2022. Integrated and Contextualized Workforce Skills (ICWS) in the ESL Classroom (Los Angeles City College and Online) provides examples of integrating transferable work skills and contextualizing workplace forms and activities into general English as a second language (ESL) class instruction. The purpose is to provide background to educators for teaching skills transferable from the classroom to the workplace and to explicitly teach students how to articulate those skills. This training will take place October 31, 2022—December 13, 2022. Register at <https://bit.ly/3CSyRcA> by October 27, 2022.

Would you rather learn at your own pace? Don't forget about CALPRO's twelve ongoing online self-directed courses http://bit.ly/CALPRO_SelfDirected. These self-paced courses are available year-round and contain great information for both instructors and administrators in adult education. Some popular courses include Learner Goal Setting in Adult Education Programs and Designing Programs for Adults with Learning Disabilities: Awareness for Adult Educators.

Visit our website (<http://www.calpro-online.org/>) and check our Event Calendar frequently; more opportunities for professional development are added as they become available.
