

California Council for Adult Education
State Nomination Form
Partners in Adult Education Excellence Award

Contributions to adult education are made by many educational and community organizations. These groups have made a positive impact on student learning, and their contributions deserve recognition, as this award is designed to do.

Eligibility: The nominee, which is an agency serving adult education, has demonstrated effective collaborations between education and community learners in both the creation and implementation of adult education programs. They have sustained a positive impact on students' learning and have had broad support and active involvement in the community. This agency has shown exemplary educational practices towards adult schools that can be replicated by others.
